

A man with a goatee and short brown hair, wearing a dark blue short-sleeved button-down shirt over a white t-shirt, stands in a marina. He is smiling broadly at the camera. The background shows a body of water with several sailboats, a white gazebo with a pointed roof, and a larger building with multiple spires. The sky is blue with some light clouds.

Brad Bourn will work for Parks that everyone can enjoy.

Hi. I'm Brad Bourn, and I'm running for Park Board. Let me introduce myself.

I'm for an independent Park Board. I'm for transparency and increased citizen input; I'm against privatization of park services.

I believe our parks can and should be much more environmentally-friendly and sustainable.

I believe in fiscal responsibility. My Master's degree in Public Administration has taught me to prioritize investments in people, programs, and open spaces.

I believe our parks should provide a comprehensive model of healthy living. I'm for investment in community gardens and improved youth programs, and healthier food choices in park vending machines.

I know firsthand the important role parks play in people's lives. I've lived in Minneapolis—and enjoyed the parks—my entire life. As a youth service program manager, I work in the Parks every day. Parks play a vital role in improving people's lives, particularly in diverse neighborhoods.
