CONNECTING NEW YORK CITY

ANDREW RASIEJ knows that technology is critical to our community's success. His MOUSE program in the schools has helped thousands of kids learn about computers, go on to college, and gain valuable job skills.

Now he wants to bring his vision of the future to all New Yorkers, as your Public Advocate in City Hall. His innovative plan to connect everyone through low-cost wireless Internet ("Wi-Fi") will make sure our kids can get ahead in the Information Age, instead of being left behind.

VOTE FOR ANDREW RASIEJ in the SEPTEMBER 13 primary, and for more information—or to volunteer or donate—call 646-274-1502 or log on to WWW.RASIEJ.COM.
